

10

Quotes

To Make You Think & Lift Your Spirits

Never give up on your dreams. Age is a number and the hurdles faced can be overcome by your own mind-set

Nothing worth achieving happened without “blood, sweat & tears: The latter when the route became rocky and then when you made it

Each new day offers untold opportunity. Some live with their eyes closed. Only with eyes open will you succeed

Action is the only difference between dreamers and achievers

When work stops being enjoyable, it's time to do something.
Your life and your choice

Treat every day as your last, value every minute, fight for every second. It's called “giving it your best shot”

Your day is not mapped out. You draw your own map and choose which route to follow

Dreamers have their place. Doers have their place. Doers make things happen. Achievers pull everything together with a good dose of self-belief

Time is not measured in hours but by what you achieved in that period of time

Opportunities lie everywhere. They only turn into reality with a good degree of focus